

Model Answer of Contemporary International Community Law Examination

I. Mention Two characteristics that distinguish the international community from the domestic society. (04 p) Two from:

1 Absence of a Supreme Authority, 2 Contractual Nature of International Legal Rule, 3 Relative Weakness of International Judicial Mechanisms, 4 Distinctive Nature of Sanctions in International Law. 5 International Legal Personality of Community Members.

II. Choose the correct answer or answers by writing the letter(s) in the blanks (16 p)

Question 1: Contemporary international community law can be defined as:

- A) Binding legal rules that regulate relations between subjects of international law
- B) Non-binding ethical principles
- C) Legal rules regulating relations between states and other international actors
- D) Domestic rules with external effects

Correct answer: A+C

Question 2: The state is considered the primary subject of international law because:

- A) It possesses original international legal personality
- B) It must be a member of the United Nations
- C) It is created by international organizations
- D) It is subject to permanent international supervision

Correct answer: A

Question 3: The territory of the state in international law includes:

- A) Only the land territory
- B) Land territory and maritime territory
- C) Land territory, maritime territory, and airspace
- D) International waters

Correct answer: C

Question 4: International legal personality means the ability to:

- A) Apply domestic law
- B) Exercise legislative authority
- C) Acquire rights and assume international obligations
- D) Enforce sovereignty within the state

Correct answer: C

Question 5: Internal waters of a state are characterized by:

- A) Subject to freedom of international navigation
- B) Subject to the regime of the high seas
- C) Fully subject to the sovereignty of the state
- D) Not considered part of the territory

Correct answer: C

Question 6: The subjects of the traditional international community include:

- A) States only
- B) States and international organizations
- C) Individuals as original subjects
- D) Multinational corporations

Correct answer: A

Question 7: The ancient era of the international community was characterized by:

- A) Absence of any relations between groups
- B) Limited relations between civilizations
- C) Existence of international organizations
- D) A global legal system

Correct answer: B

Question 8: The international community in ancient times was characterized by:

- A) Global nature
- B) A comprehensive cultural unity
- C) Fragmentation and absence of universality
- D) Institutional organization

Correct answer: C

Question 9: The oldest international treaties appeared primarily in:

- A) Roman civilization
- B) Greek civilization
- C) Mesopotamian civilization
- D) Islamic civilization

Correct answer: C

Question 10: Europe in the Middle Ages was characterized by:

- A) Sovereignty of nation-states
- B) Completion of the concept of sovereignty
- C) Division and internal conflicts
- D) Political unity

Correct answer: C

Question 11: The objective of the Congress of Vienna (1814–1815) was to:

- A) Encourage revolutions
- B) Establish a global international organization
- C) Restore the political balance in Europe
- D) End colonialism

Correct answer: C

Question 12: One of the main outcomes of World War II was:

- A) Establishing the League of Nations
- B) Abolishing international law
- C) Establishing the United Nations
- D) Immediate end of colonialism

Correct answer: C

Question 13: The United Nations primarily aims to:

- A) Establish a global government
- B) Maintain international peace and security
- C) Abolish state sovereignty
- D) Unify domestic laws

Correct answer: B

Question 14: The contemporary international community is characterized by:

- A) Regional nature
- B) Global nature
- C) Cultural homogeneity
- D) Absence of organization

Correct answer: B

Question 15: Classical Islamic jurists divided the world into:

- A) Dar al-Khilafah, Dar al-Rum, Dar al-Furs
- B) Advanced and backward countries
- C) Dar al-Harb, Dar al-Salam, Dar al-Ahd
- D) Muslim lands and non-Muslim lands

Correct answer: C

Question 16: International legal personality is considered today as:

- A) Dynamic and evolving
- B) Limited exclusively to states
- C) Adaptable to new international actors
- D) A rigid and immutable concept

Correct answer: A+C.

Good Luck